

J Equity Partners wins the 2016 European Magazine's Award for Sharia Compliant Investment Firm of the Year.

The European Magazine has chosen J Equity Partners, the Bahrain domiciled boutique investment firm as the Shariah Compliant Investment Firm of the year – 2016 as part of the annual Global Banking and Finance Awards by the European. The official announcement was published in the premier November-December awards issue that distributed globally.

Commenting on the winning of the award, Dr. Ahmed Al Jawhary, the founder and the CEO of J Equity Partners said:

“J Equity Partners is fast becoming a regional contender on the investment scene. We believe that we brought to the domestic market and possibly the regional market, with our modest initiative, a prototype of the missing link represented by creating an intellectually sound, a financially viable and a technically infused investment manufacturing outlet with an apparent level of sophistication.”

The European, over the past years, has been celebrating achievement, innovation and excellence through its annual awards program. The aim is to give corporate organizations an insight into various achievements within a range of disciplines. All companies are nominated through The European's sophisticated online voting system which is highly governed.

The European judging panel has extensive experience across a range of sectors, supported by a highly dedicated research team that works around the clock to ensure that the awards program is a success. The European award programs are in fact tailored to provide a comprehensive analysis of the very best in all major market sectors globally.

The European recognizes organizations and individuals that stand out from the crowd, and are consequently moving their industries forward. Good governance, innovation and know-how, and quality of service are all major considerations.
